

Career Profile

Name: Bryan Pinkley

Directions: Using the Career Cruising website and other internet sites to discover your personal interests, career choices, and educational options. The purpose of this activity is to:

1. Provide aware of the many career opportunities related to design and technical drawing skills.
2. Provide aware of the many educational requirements and skills needed to be successful in a career related to design and technical drawing.

www.careercruising.com

Username: Stevenson

Password: careers

Step #1: Create a profile

Step #2: Complete the “Career Matchmaker” assessment

Step #3: Explore one of the suggested careers or see how other careers match up with your answers.

What were 3 of the suggested careers you explored?

1. Drafter
2. Architect
3. Graphic Designer

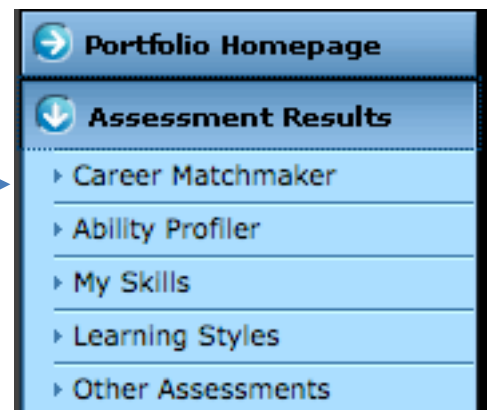

Explore a career that relates to this course (ie. Architect, aerospace, mechanical engineer, etc.) that interests you. What are 2 interesting facts that you learned about this career?

1. Architects have to spend 3 years as an intern before than can become a licensed architect.
2. Architects work at offices, as well as at the construction site.

Choose 1 career of your choice: Architect

What are the job responsibilities for this career?

Architects design building and other things according to the client’s request. He needs to design the building, along with make sure it is safe and in budget.

What educational background or training or experience is needed for this career?

Most architects complete a 5-year Bachelor of Architecture program designed for students entering straight from high school. Some schools offer a 2-year Master of Architecture program for students with a bachelor's degree in an architecture-related subject. There are also some 3 or 4-year master's programs available for students with degrees in other areas.

What levels of advancement are available to a person in this career?

3 years of an intern, then they become a regular architect, then if they good enough, they can become the principal architect of the firm.

What is the salary range for this career?

Start: $35,000-$55,950 (intern) Average: $70,000 Top: $300,000

Step #4: Using the "Schools that Interest Me" complete the survey.

What were 3 universities/colleges that matched your career interest?

1. Ball State University
2. University of Missouri –Kansas City
3. University of Wisconsin -Milwaukee

Using the Career Cruising website and other online sites, choose 1 university/college to explore: University of Missouri –Kansas City

What are the graduation requirements for the major/degree you chose?

There are different ways to obtain the necessary educational qualifications. Most architects complete a 5-year Bachelor of Architecture program designed for students entering straight from high school. This is often considered the most direct route to a career in architecture for high school students. Some schools offer a 2-year Master of Architecture program for students with a bachelor's degree in an architecture-related subject. There are also some 3 or 4-year master's programs available for students with degrees in other areas.

What are the costs involved with the major/degree you chose?

Tuition $8569.80 Fees $7962.00

Room & Board $153.60 Books $191.47

Name at least 3 services, programs, or activities that this college/university offers that would support your pursuit for your degree in your chosen career.

The Urban Planning + Design curriculum includes a liberal arts foundation with a core of professional planning and design studio courses. These include planning history, theory, quantitative methods, planning law and Geographic Information Systems (GIS). Students choose professional electives, such as environmental planning, urban redevelopment, transportation planning, and historic preservation. Studio courses provide opportunities to explore the many facets of planning practice and teach students how to apply knowledge to actual sites.